PRECISION, FLEXIBILITY, AND SCALE—BUILT AROUND YOUR VISION

At Lofted Spirits, bottling is not a fixed endpoint. It is a continuation of customization. Designed with the same philosophy that defines our distilling operations, our bottling and copacking platform delivers exceptional flexibility, technical rigor, and scalability for brands at every stage of growth. From high-volume national programs to intricate, high-touch single barrel releases, our operation is built to execute your packaging vision with precision and consistency.

KEY BENEFITS

- State-of-the-art-copacking can bottle up to 35 million bottles annually
- Four bottling lines ranging from high-speed, high-volume production to small-format, high-touch processing
- Newly commissioned, state-of-the-art small size bottling line for enhanced flexibility and innovation
- Bottle size capability ranging from 50mL to 1.75L
- Ability to process a wide variety of spirits, including whiskey, vodka, rum, and RTDs

BUILT FOR CUSTOM AND COMPLEX PROGRAMS

- Expertise in custom, multi-component single barrel bottling
- Flexible line configurations to support unique pack formats and specialty runs
- Seamless coordination between distilling, aging, and bottling teams
- Infrastructure designed to support both repeatable scale and one-off precision

This approach ensures that brands are never forced to simplify their ideas to fit the operation. Instead, the operation adapts to the vision.

QUALITY, SAFETY, AND SUSTAINABILITY STANDARDS

- ISO 9001 certified quality management systems
- FSSC 22000 certified food safety systems
- Energy Star Certified facility in 2025, reflecting ongoing investment in efficiency and sustainability

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOUR BRAND

- A bottling partner that prioritizes flexibility over rigid production models
- Confidence that complex packaging ideas can be executed without compromise
- The ability to scale seamlessly from small runs to national distribution
- A single, integrated partner from liquid to finished goods

The result is a bottling operation that feels less like a service provider and more like an extension of your brand. YOUR VISION SETS THE STANDARD. WE BUILD THE SYSTEM TO DELIVER IT.
